Anyone reading this paper needs to understand, just HOW DANGEROUS this "boy" is. It's nearly a whole decade since he started his .... 'game'. I'm warning everyone to not at all take this as a joke.

The individual in question that I will inform, is a real-life shape-shifter and morpher. Not in a literal sense to which he can turn into anyone, but in the sense that he can pop up, influence many things and events, and no one will ask the question of "who he is"? He blends in VERY WELL with the general population. He is seemingly quiet, but charismatic.

He has a way of 'talking'..
BUT, his humor, if you can call it that, is mysterious and strange.
I cannot Explain it, but I'll put it bluntly: it makes NO SENSE.

He is EVERYWHERE, from online, to reality. He has somehow an influence on the basic fabric of society. I sense danger from "Him"... he is not human at all, He is short, but mysteriously ingenious and strong.
Please look out of him... really.
